Wisconsin Statute 71.935, allows a county to apply for an income tax refund intercept; a civil judgment may be entered; and the matter referred to a collection agency for a debt owed to the county for an unpaid fine, restitution, forfeiture, or Court ordered related fees. The request for your social security number is pursuant to the Social Security Law, 42 USC Section 405(c)(2)(C) and Wis. Statute 71.935 for the purpose of an income tax intercept, if convicted and you fail to pay the amounts ordered. The social security number is given voluntarily unless there is a mandatory requirement-such as if you do not have your driver's license with you.
