Portage County, WIS. – Members of the County's Economic Response Team and select leaders will host a virtual meeting for local businesses on the County's economic response efforts. The briefing will take place on May 13, 2020 at 1:30 pm through Zoom conferencing. There will be no limit to the number of attendees on the meeting.

The agenda will include a presentation by Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development (DWD) Secretary Caleb Frostman on the DWD response to COVID-19, and Aspirus Vice-President Robert Smith.

This briefing is designed for local businesses to receive important information about the COVID-19 pandemic and the response to the pandemic. Those who are interested in participating can do so through Zoom, utilizing the application or call-in instructions found here.

Participants are encouraged to submit questions prior to the meeting by filling out this form or by emailing rkernosky@stevenspoint.com.

###

"To focus community resources, energy and effort dedicated to finding collaborative and decisive strategic actions for beginning immediate economic recovery, and positioning Portage County to achieve even greater long-term regional economic resilience."
